VIAN

HRUSHIKESH, LOKHANDWALA

A RARE ROUTE TO QUIET LUXURY

Some roads lead you outward — to destinations.
Others invite you inward — to a quieter world.

Tucked away from the city's impatient rhythm lies a stretch — unhurried, untouched, and beyond the everyday.

A tranquil promenade where indulgence embraces stillness.

On one side — the soft thrill of a McLaren gliding past.
On the other — mangroves, standing like guardians of calm.

A rare route where the rush of life and serene repose meet in harmony.

Few speak of this road.
Those who know it say little — they simply arrive, letting the silence tell the story.

A RARE CORNER TO STAND APART

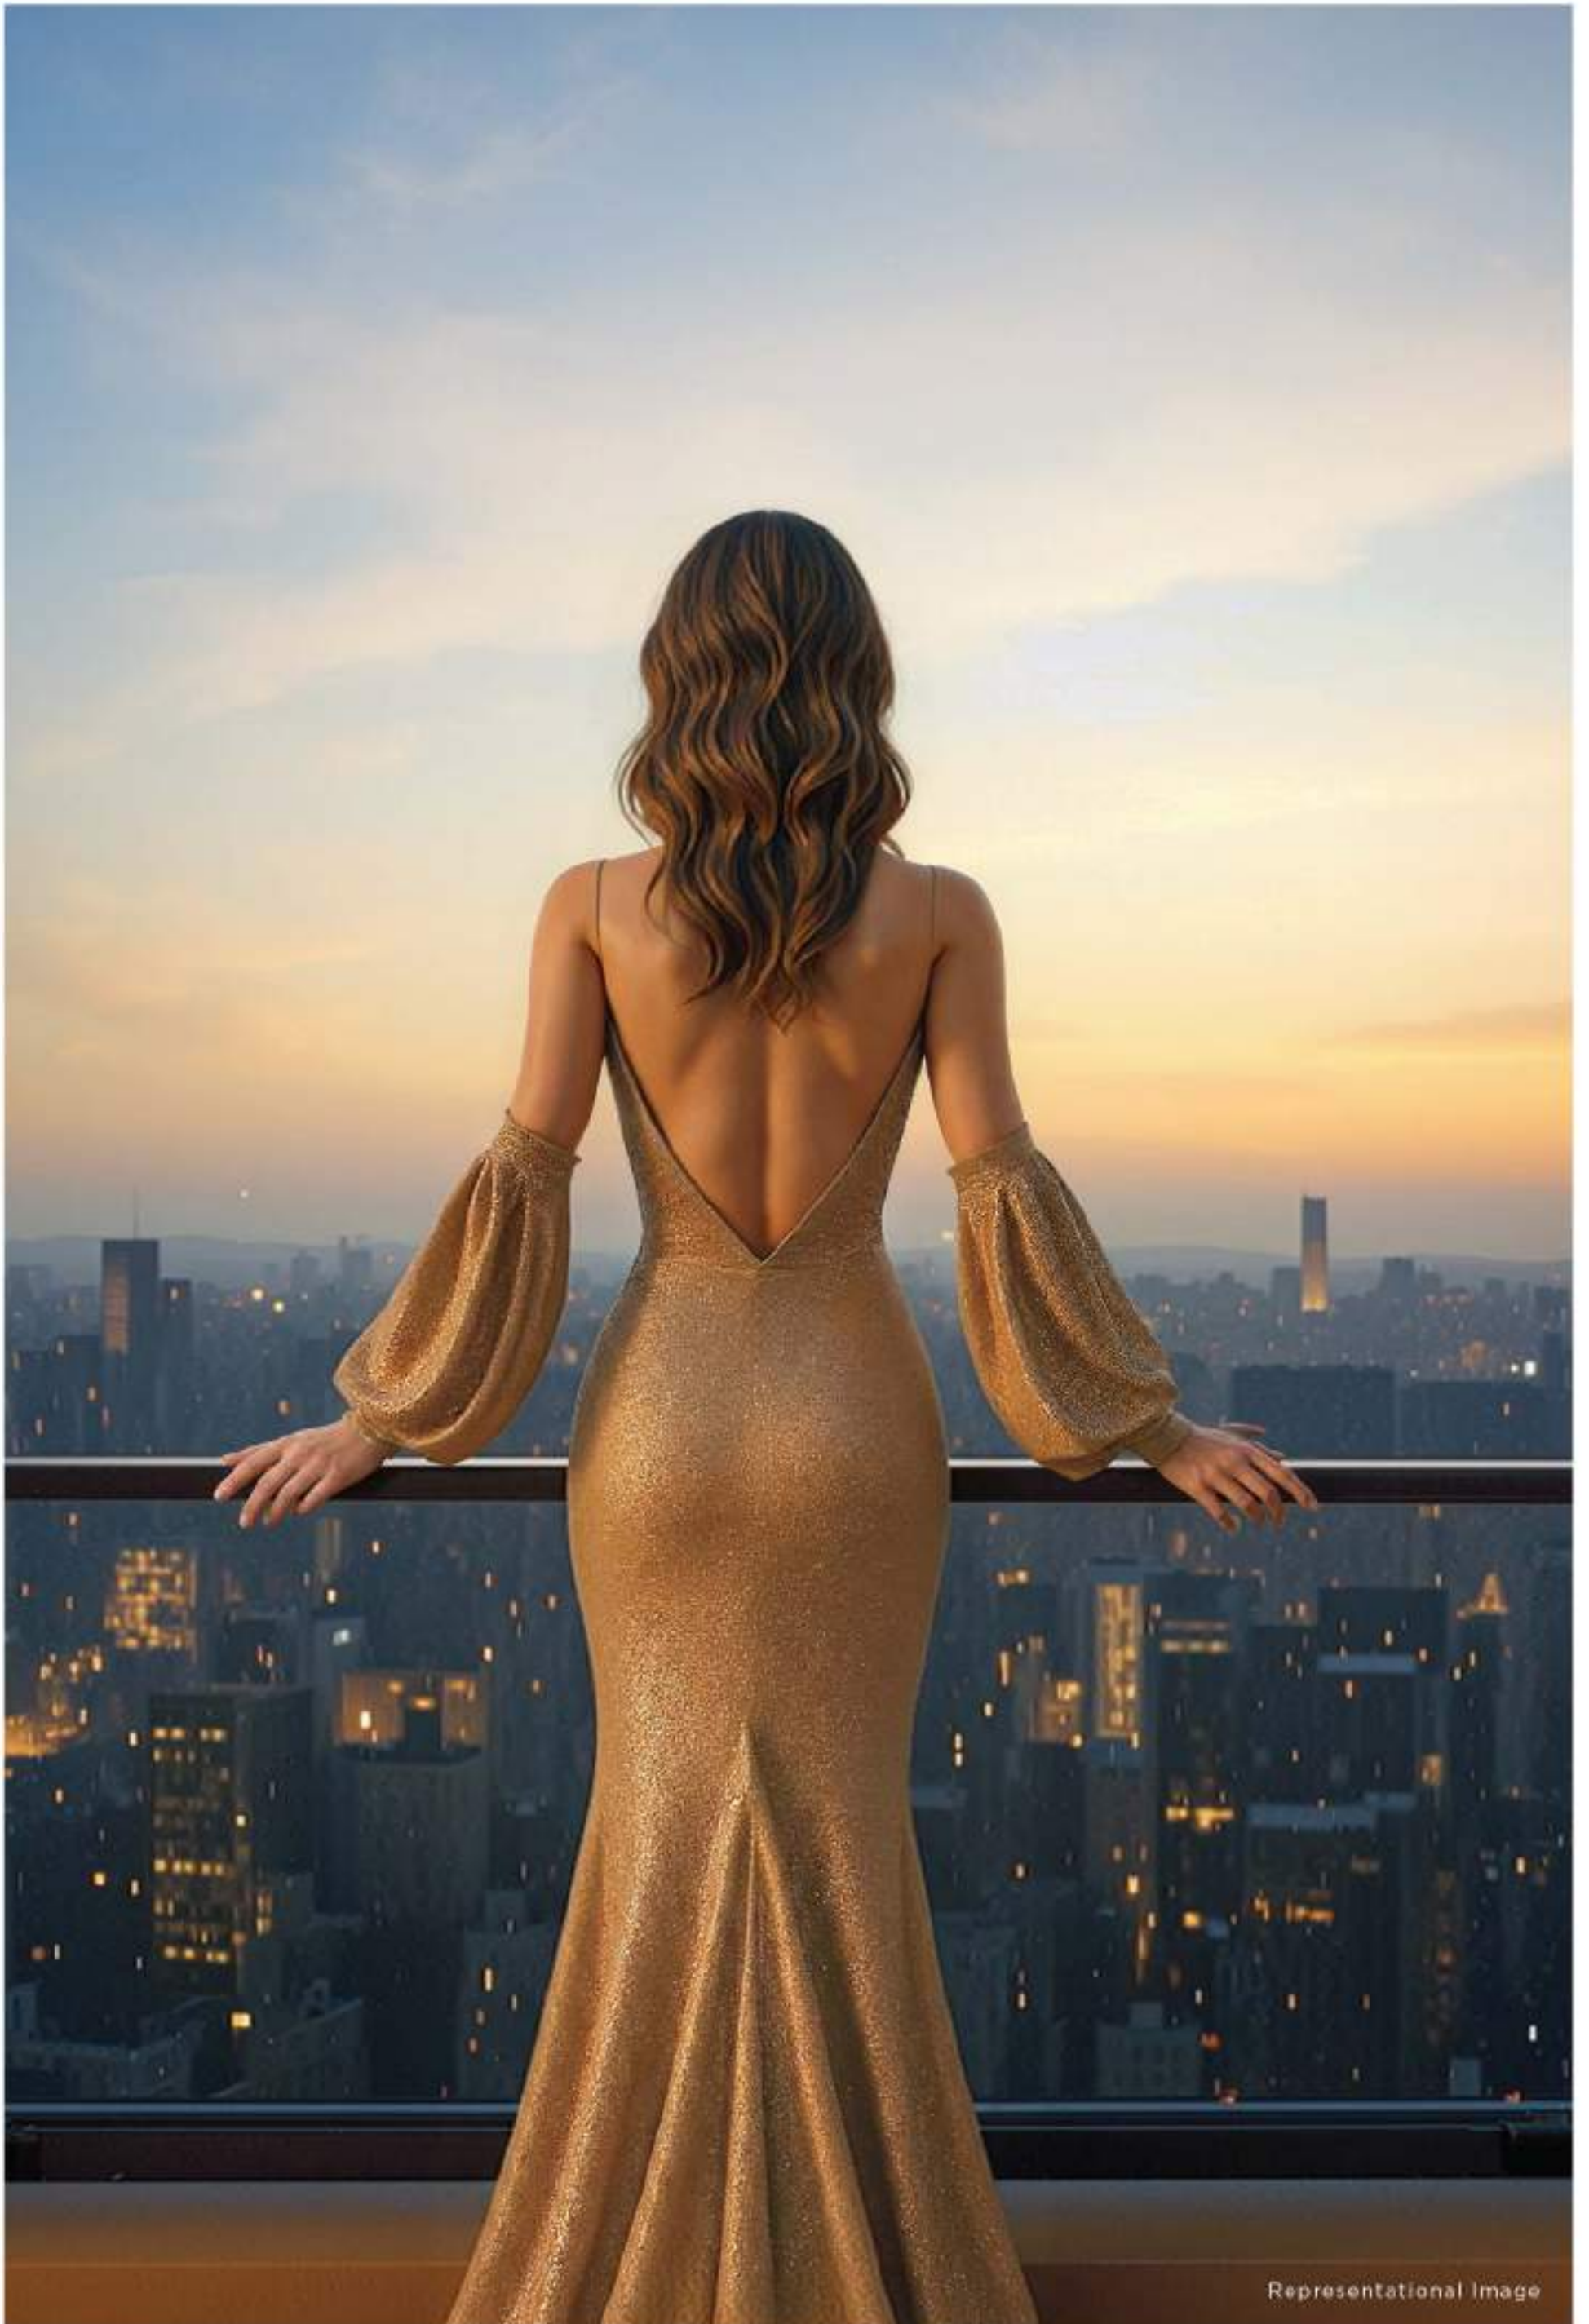

Here, at the end of this whispered path, lies a turn few ever expect — but the discerning never miss.

A corner distinguished not merely by location, but by presence.
From this illustrious corner, the story expands.

What you once passed by in glimpses — now unfolds beside you,
no longer distant.

For those who see beyond the obvious,
this is where the backroad transforms — into something truly exceptional.

THE RARE CHARM OF LOKHANDWALA

Lokhandwala isn't a discovery. It's a knowing.

A neighbourhood woven from years of rhythm and routine — where energy has always existed, just never for show.

Morning runs, spontaneous street shoots, cafés that cater to the coffee loyalists —
the garden offers a pause between auditions, while the project remains the city's unofficial fashion runway.

A flicker of glamour, a neighbourhood always alive.

Is Lokhandwala a buzzing suburb or a sanctuary?

A creative hub or a local favourite?

The thing is — nobody's ever fully figured it out.

And that's exactly its charm.

It's a place that's alive in the best ways —

confident, familiar, and effortlessly ahead of the curve.

To live here is to belong to something proven, a lifestyle that doesn't try too hard. It simply is.

WHERE SILENCE AND OPULENCE LIVE AS ONE

At the meeting point of everything rare — a road that whispers, a corner that knows, a neighbourhood alive in quiet confidence — stands a place shaped by grace, charm,
and distinction.

Kalpataru Vian isn't an arrival. It's a revelation — of where you belong, of what was always bequeathed to you.
Not loud, not showy. Just right.

V NOTE FROM THE VISIONARIES

With Kalpataru Vian, we are creating a new landmark in luxury living for Lokhandwala. Set on a rare and strategic corner plot, the project introduces a bold identity to the micro-market while reinforcing our legacy in Andheri West through earlier icons like Kalpataru Yashodhan and Kalpataru Solitaire.

It offers an elevated lifestyle through refined design, curated world-class amenities, and residences planned with precision and intent. The uninterrupted mangrove views add a sense of calm rarely found in the city.

As the locality benefits from upcoming infrastructure upgrades, Kalpataru Vian stands as a long-term value asset that brings together exclusivity, connectivity, and lasting value.

It reflects our continued commitment to thoughtful development, contributing to the evolution of the neighbourhood and delivering a premium living experience shaped for tomorrow.

Mofatraj P. Munot, Chairman

Our new project in Lokhandwala reflects a careful orchestration of design, location, and lifestyle. The prized corner plot ensures prominence and access, while the residences offer rare tranquillity with uninterrupted views of the mangroves.

Each home is built for space and serenity, enhanced by world-class amenities that elevate everyday living. This development carries forward the trusted Kalpataru legacy in Andheri West, defined by Kalpataru Yashodhan and Kalpataru Solitaire, and introduces a new design language to the micro-market.

With major infrastructure growth underway, the project is perfectly positioned to deliver enduring value and redefine luxury living in one of Mumbai's most dynamic neighbourhoods. Above all, Kalpataru Vian is designed to offer a tranquil, restorative environment that brings balance to the pace of urban life.

THROUGH THE ARCHITECT'S EYES

The design of Kalpataru Vian is anchored in creating a residential landmark shaped by Mumbai's mangroves, its distinct geology, and tropical architecture that responds not only to location and views but also to climate and lifestyle.

This tropical modern theme is reflected throughout — from the master plan that buffers the metro through landscaping and minimal internal roads, to the architectural planning that ensures excellent cross-ventilation and privacy, and a façade that incorporates ventilation louvres and earthy aluminium cladding to create a distinctive presence while respecting nature.

LOKHANDWALA, THE GREENEST OF THE WESTERN SUBURBS

Backroad Mangroves

A rare urban marvel wrapping the backroad in serenity — offering a quiet breath amidst Mumbai's relentless tempo.

The Lokhandwala Garden

More than a patch of green — a living refuge within the urban sprawl, where shaded paths invite the neighbourhood to pause.

Tree-Lined Avenues

Shaded by a canopy of rain trees, these avenues move not with haste but with hush — more promenade than passage, inviting you to slow, linger, and belong.

The Green Mosaic

A network of open spaces that define Lokhandwala's green character:

- * Nana Nani Park
- * Joggers Park
- * Lokhandwala Lake Road

KEEPING UP WITH THE PULSE OF LOKHANDWALA

Lokhandwala has always been known for its charisma.

Now, it finds itself at the very heart of Mumbai's transformation. As the city's next wave of infrastructure unfolds, this neighbourhood evolves from admired to truly accessible — from tucked-away to future-ready.

Kalpataru Vian stands poised at the nexus of mobility, lifestyle, and promise. It isn't just well-connected — it's beautifully connected.

Major upcoming infrastructure developments:

- Versova Bhayander Coastal Road
- Versova-Bandra Sea Link
- Juhu Bridge

- Metro Line 6

B A NEW ARCHITECTURAL BENCHMARK

Artist's Impression

Kalpataru Vian's façade is a statement of composed elegance and material beauty. Inspired by the natural geology of Mumbai — from the warm hues of red earth and beach sand to the deep greys of basalt and the lush green of the mangroves — the palette evokes a grounded elegance rarely seen in the city's skyline.

Calm, modern, and enduring — a design language that introduces timeless sophistication to the neighbourhood.

Each detail is crafted with purpose:

- Refined vertical proportions, lending the building a timeless and elegant presence on the skyline
- Thoughtfully articulated planes and subtle layering create an interplay of light and shadow, bringing visual depth while reducing the perception of mass.

MASTERPLAN

A Tower 1 Drop Off | B Tower 2 Drop Off | C Lobby- Wing A&B | D Lobby- Wing C&D

At Kalpataru Vian, the masterplan is drawn not just with precision, but with empathy for how life unfolds. All residential towers rise from an elevated eco-deck, gently lifting the community above the city's bustle — creating natural zones of calm, gathering, and green expanse.

Vehicular movement is thoughtfully minimised at surface level, letting gardens, walkways, and open skies take the lead. Amenity spaces are strategically placed — some for sweeping city views, others for tucked-away moments of pause and privacy.

P A GRAND
PRELUDE
TO THE LIFE INSIDE

Arriving home here is an experience.

A composed entry sequence slows the pace,
turning every arrival into a moment of quiet theatre.

At Kalpataru Vian, arrivals are designed with intent — layered textures, generous proportions, and warm finishes that welcome, not just function.

A stage for arrival, not a sidewalk.

- Central cascade water feature
- Ceremonial patterned flooring
- Dedicated lush and welcoming planters
- Warm metallic finishes with ambient lighting

THE WORLD, FULL OF YOU

Some homes are designed for show.

Yours is designed for self — a quiet, expansive reflection of who you are when no one's watching.

Every residence at Kalpataru Vian is more than just generous in space; it's a stage for your taste, your story.

The art you collect, the scent that lingers, the fabric that moves with morning light — they don't define the space. The space defines them.

THE SOUND OF SLEEP

It's not just silence. It's the rustle of your favourite throw.

The triumph in your child's laugh after a late-night win at Jenga.

The final sip of chamomile tea, warm in your hands before sleep takes over.

It's the language of home — intimate, familiar, deeply yours.

At Kalpataru Vian, we've tuned every detail to hold space for moments like these — the rituals that mark the end of a day and the beginning of rest.

- Private balcony* in the master bedroom
- Imported marble flooring for a seamless finish
- Walk-in wardrobe designed for exclusivity*
- In-room workstations across all bedrooms*

AND JUST LIKE THAT... THE WARDROBE GOT A PERSONALITY

Legends say walk-in wardrobes* are where love stories begin – preferably with a pair of Louis Vuittons.

More than a wardrobe, less than a museum (but only just).

It's where the Rolex rests in its velvet tray, the Tiffany's box tucks into its drawer, and the Hermès finds its rightful pedestal.

- Dedicated space for an intimate powder room
- Smart lighting scenarios with simple, modern switch systems

THE REAL PLAYFULNESS HAPPENS IN THE KITCHEN

The cookie dough sticks to elbows and countertops. The avocado toast is slightly on fire — again. Fresh blueberries vanish into little fists before they hit the plate. And somewhere in all this chaos, two tiny chefs are plotting the perfect breakfast-in-bed surprise for their parents' anniversary. Because this is where the love actually comes together — warm, messy, and made from scratch.

- Equipped with PNG line and heat detector
- Provision for double-door refrigerator*
- Provision for dishwasher
- Dedicated utility space with washer and dryer provision
- Exhaust fan and water purifier provision

I A CONSTELLATION
OF EVERYDAY
INDULGENCES

WHERE LIFE SPILLS OUT GENTLY

Artist's Impression

Between the sky above and the earth below, there is a level where life feels unfiltered. Children run barefoot across lawns. A jogger circles back — not to beat time, but to meet it. Somewhere, laughter follows a splash. And under a tree, someone finds a moment just to breathe. The Eco Deck at Kalpataru Vian isn't an amenity.

It's a scene. A chapter. A pause.

It's where nature meets nurture, and leisure becomes a way of being.

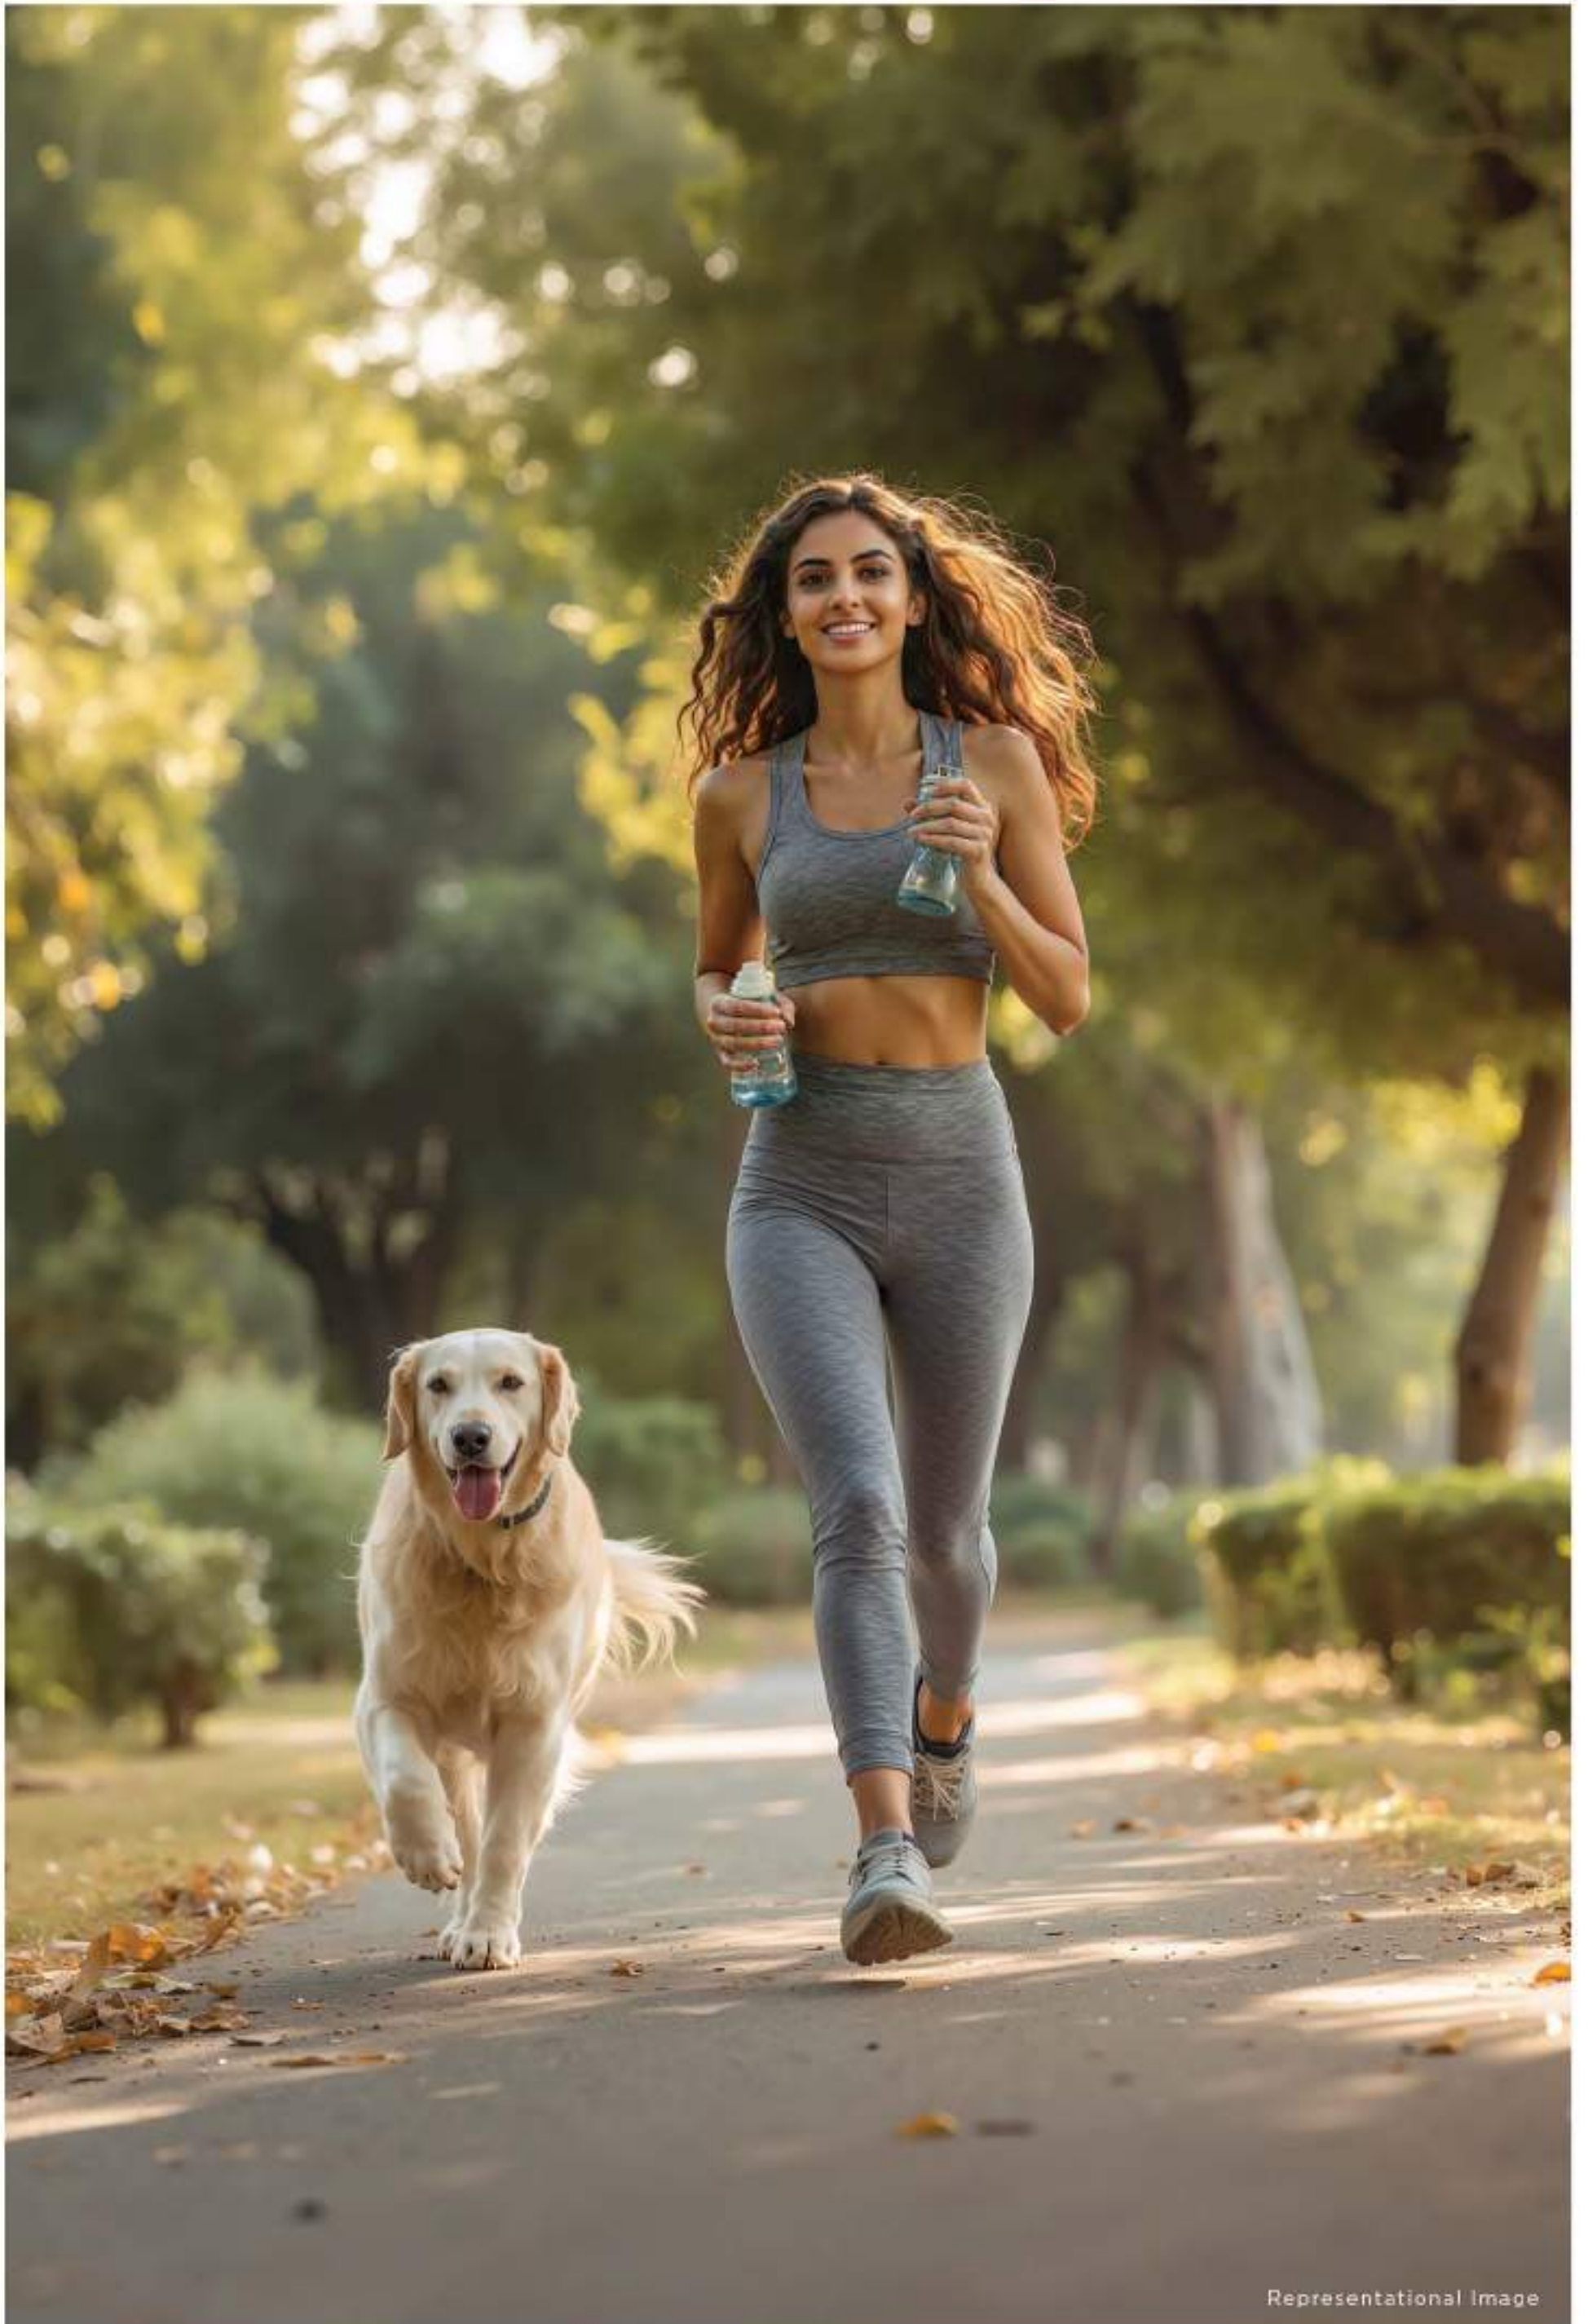

THE DRIBBLE. THE SPLASH. THE BARK.

On the eco deck, movement becomes memory.

The rhythmic bounce of a pickleball, the splash of joy in the kids' pool, the rustle of leaves as someone races past on a jog.

Playful barks echo from the pet park, giggles rise from the play area — and everywhere, life flows under open skies.

OF CLINKS, CANDLES, AND CONVERSATIONS.

Step inside, and the mood shifts.

There's the hum of a foosball rivalry. The clink of teacups in the lounge.

Light debates over headlines. A celebration in full swing, candles flickering on a cake.

This is where routine feels like ritual — where movement, play, and pause find their rhythm indoors.

LANDSCAPE ARCHITECT'S VISION

The project envisions a private sanctuary within the city — a place surrounded by lush gardens, where indoor and outdoor spaces are thoughtfully integrated. Here, nature and daily life coexist harmoniously, cultivating a calm, personal atmosphere that truly feels like home. It is this vision that introduces the concept of Naturebound Home — a place of harmony between people and nature, where urban living feels just like home. This landscape design transforms constraints into opportunities — enhancing usability, fostering community interaction, and creating a unique identity.
